JURISPRUDENCE

ILM 503

L:T:P::4:1:0

Credits-4

OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE: Concept of law is central to the legal enterprise. In the absence of a comprehensive understanding of this concept neither legal education nor legal practice can be set towards attaining justice in the society. Pedagogy is merely teaching of rules without the knowledge of cognitive and teleological foundations of the discipline and it would not be possible to present a synchronization of various statutes, cases, procedures, practices and customs in the form of a 'systematic body of knowledge' nor it would be possible to show the interconnectivity among various branches of law.

OUTCOME- By the end of this course, successful students will be able to:

- 1.explain the differences between the major historical schools of jurisprudence concerning the nature of law;
- 2.identify the major and minor premises of legal arguments and analyze legal debates using appropriate rhetorical vocabulary;
- 3.invent and defend arguments about the requirements of justice in legal disputes that reference and extend the themes of the course.

Syllabus

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW-II
ILM 602

L:T:P::4:1:0

Credits-4

OBJECTIVE: Founding fathers of the Constitution of India through “we the people of India” constituted India into a Sovereign, Democratic, Socialist, Secular, Republic to secure equality, justice, liberty, fraternity and dignity of the individual. In this backdrop it is imperative for the law students to know the genesis of fundamental rights and duties and Directive Principle of State Policies and their interpretation in right perspective. The concept of secularism must be interpreted progressively in a pluralistic society like India. Constitutional interpretation is influenced by one’s social, economic and political bearings and hence a law student must learn how a different interpretation of the Constitution is possible and why a particular interpretation was adopted by the Supreme Court. A critical analysis is sine qua non for a better understanding of the Constitutional Law.

Judicial review is an important aspect of Constitutional Law of India and it monitors Legislative and Executive anomie. In India judiciary has power to review even judicial amendments.
