together, every year after successful completion of the course in minimum stipulated period as per Ordinances. In case of a tie, the University shall be deciding topper through tie breaking first on the basis of marks secured in final year which will be followed by marks in previous years individually in descending order and based on age at the last.

5. UTU shall maintain complete account of the medal and endowment separately and the accounts shall be operated as per prescribed procedure of the University.
6. UTU shall award the Medal in the Convocation every year or in some other appropriate function as prescribed by the University in which invitation shall be essentially sent to the Donor to witness the ceremony. The first medal shall be awarded on the conclusion of the current academic session and the Donor undertakes to give the requisite amount (3% of the Endowment Fund i.e. Rs.15,000/= only, (Rupees Fifteen Thousand Only)) separately for starting the medal immediately.
7. UTU shall have the power to award a cash prize whenever the interest from the endowment is insufficient for the award of Gold Medal, in which case, it shall be called cash award with the same name. In the event of no medal being awarded in a year, the total interest accrued in respective year shall be added to the corpus. Any amount of interest over and above the cost of medal in a year shall be added to the corpus.
8. UTU shall have the power to negotiate with the donor for increasing the donation, whenever the funds are insufficient to carry out the purposes to which the funds have been endowed. In the event of refusal by the donor to increase the endowment, the University shall have the power to cancel the endowment and to forfeit the unspent amount of endowment. No interest shall be payable to the Donor.
9. UTU may go for change in terms and conditions, in consultation with the Donor with the approval of the Executive Committee of UTU.

Arbitration: The Vice Chancellor, UTU shall be the sole arbitrator in the event of any dispute arising out of or in any way concerning the present agreement or the subject matter hereof. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both the parties.
